About

Abigail Johnston practices in the Litigation and Trial group at McNaul Ebel. She has represented both individuals and corporate entities in all aspects of complex commercial litigation. Abigail has handled matters in state and federal court, as well as governmental, regulatory and internal investigations. She has significant experience advising on business and investment disputes involving allegations of fraud and fraudulent transfer, breach of fiduciary duty, and breach of contract across a variety of industries. Prior to joining McNaul Ebel, Abigail practiced in the New York City office of Curtis, Mallet-Prevost, Colt & Mosle LLP, where she focused on complex commercial litigation and arbitration. Abigail has also served as an Assistant District Attorney for the Bronx District Attorney's Office. After law school, she practiced at Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson LLP, where she was a corporate associate in the Mergers & Acquisitions/Private Equity group.
