

Are you a Senior Associate-Level Corporate Attorney with prior training at a top quality firm or legal department? Do you have superior communication and drafting skills, a strong work ethic, a focus on initiative, attention to detail, and a client-centric approach? Are you seeking an opportunity for full-scale responsibilities, direct client interactions, and the opportunity to impact your own growth and success? We are in search of an attorney licensed in the state of Washington, to contribute in a unique “utility” role to our transactional practice groups. This is an exciting opportunity for an experienced associate seeking the opportunity to develop client and referral relationships with the active support of our highly-skilled transactional team.

We are McNaul Ebel Nawrot & Helgren, PLLC a highly respected Seattle law firm formed in 1995 by a group of attorneys known for rigorous and successful representation of clients. Our attorneys have established exceptional reputations in the local, state, and national legal communities by handling some of the most highly visible business transactions and complex commercial litigation in the country. We produce high level work, foster intellectual legal minds, and provide opportunities for promising individuals.

The role for which we are currently hiring is expected to have significant “front-line” exposure and will offer a great opportunity for an entrepreneurial associate to develop direct relationships with clients, seeded by rainmaking partners throughout the firm.

The ideal candidate will have experience in the areas of mergers and acquisitions, private securities offerings, commercial contracts, and general corporate law; familiarity with market terms; demonstrated excellence in drafting transaction documents and deal management; and interest in working with a wide range of companies.

To be considered, applicants must be highly self-motivated, have sound judgment, and a “can-do” attitude. Successful hires are able to advise clients on day-to-day corporate issues autonomously, while also having a keen sense of when and how to escalate matters to department leaders. Successful hires will also approach and nurture all internal and external interactions with a client-centric mind-set.

Applicants should submit a letter of application, resume, and law school transcript to Susan Little, Director of Human Resources, 600 University St., Suite 2700, Seattle, WA 98101, or slittle@mcnaul.com.
